ORDER OF TRANSFER AND NOTICE OF STATUS CONFERENCE

All currently filed cases in the 149th District Court and the 239th District Court concerning residential damage caused by Hurricane Ike are transferred to the 412th District Court.

New residential Hurricane Ike cases filed in the 149th District Court and the 239th District Court will be transferred to the 412th District Court when filed.

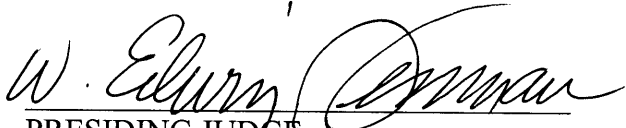

All existing docket control orders in these cases are voided.

Judge W. Edwin Denman will hold a status conference on July 20, 2009 at 2:00 p.m. in the 412th District Courtroom for all residential Hurricane Ike cases that are affected by this Order. All parties should be prepared to discuss the entry of a preliminary order for the exchange of information and early mediation. Other pre-trial issues may also be discussed.

A copy of this Order shall be posted on the Brazoria County District Court's website.

This Order does not affect cases now pending, or hereafter filed in the 23rd District Court.

Signed this 29th day of June, 2009.
