

“PERFECT STORM SEMINARS”
PRESS RELEASE
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
May 13, 2010

The Brazoria County Preparedness Committee has decided to host six (6) hurricane seminars throughout the county during the month of June. Each of these seminars will last approximately 90 minutes. You will hear from the host-cities Mayor, Emergency Management Coordinator, National Weather Service, local drainage district, and the County Emergency Management Office at each of these seminars.

Some of the topics being discussed are:

- National Weather Service Update for 2010
- What we have learned from past storms
- Being prepared when officials recommend evacuation
- Evacuation HUB and destinations
- Preparations (home, vehicles, etc.)
- Disaster supply kit information
- When you should return

There will also be time for questions and answers at the end of each seminar.

Preparedness is the key to protecting you and your family. Please plan on attending one of these seminars and become informed. By doing so, you will ensure that you and your family will survive any hurricane that may threaten our area.
