Notice of Estray

On April 21, 2011 , this department was notified of an estray, being held at Navasota Livestock Receiving Pens in Bonney, Texas. The estray is described as follows:

A black thoroughbred type stallion, approximately 18 months of age and standing approximately 13 ½ hands high. Horse has a star, strip on face and snip on nose, white socks on both hinds. Horse is in ideal body condition. Horse has several rope burns and a swollen right knee. No other marks or brands noted.

No brands could be found on this animal, and a diligent search has turned up no owners. The animal was found by Officer Chris Enloe of the Manvel Police Department at the dead end of Tankersley in the City of Manvel, Texas. This animal was listed in Estray Book at the County Clerk's Office, in the Brazoria County Courthouse, Angleton, Texas on April 27,2011, and if no owners are located by May 17th 2011, it will be sold on May 20th, 2011 at Navasota Livestock Auction Inc , Navasota, Texas.
